How Did You Hear About Platinum Paws Pet Salon?
Does Your Pet Have Any Medical Conditions, Warts, etc... That The Groomer Should Know About?
This is a contract between Platinum Paws and pet owner whose signature appears below.
Waiver and Agreement to hold harmless: Owner understands that grooming is not without some risk. Despite all pets appearing healthy and being handled with the greatest amount of care and foresight possible, pets are not always predictable and the unexpected may occur. Owner hereby waives and releases Platinum Paws, its employees, owners and agents from all claims, while on the grounds or the surrounding area, and resulting from participation at Platinum Paws. This includes specifically, but is not limited to, any injury or damage resulting from the action of any pet(s) or member of owner's family or care. Owner further agrees to pay any medical and veterinary expense incurred as a result of the pet's self inflicted injury occurring on the property while in the care of Platinum Paws. Owner gives Platinum Paws permission to seek veterinary care at the veterinarian of their choice if they deem necessary for Owner's pet(s). Platinum Paws will notify owner immediately if pet is taken to the vet. *Additional charges will apply for fleas, severe skin treatments, matted coats, hard to handle animals and clip downs. Platinum Paws also reserves the right to refuse services to any animal.
